TO: THE HONORABLE CARL L. BUCKI
CHIEF UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

Jones Day hereby submits its sixth interim application (this "Application") for compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred on behalf of the Diocese of Buffalo, New York (the "Diocese") from February 1, 2023 through July 31, 2023 (the "Sixth Interim Compensation Period"), and respectfully states as follows:

1. Jones Day is a general partnership engaged in the practice of law with offices in major commercial centers across the United States and around the world. The undersigned is a partner of Jones Day and an attorney admitted and in good standing to practice in the State of Pennsylvania, the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania, and the U.S. Courts of Appeals for the Third and Ninth Circuits. The undersigned has been admitted to practice pro hac vice before this Court in the above-captioned case.<sup>1</sup> amount of $366.14 incurred by Jones Day in the course of its representation of the Diocese during the Sixth Interim Compensation Period.

BACKGROUND

3. On February 28, 2020 (the "Petition Date"), the Diocese filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., the "Bankruptcy Code") with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of New York (the "Court"), commencing the Diocese's chapter 11 case (this "Chapter 11 Case"). The Diocese continues to operate its business and manage its properties as a debtor-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. On March 12, 2020, the Office of the United States Trustee (the "UST") filed a notice of the appointment of an official committee of unsecured creditors pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 92] (the "Committee"). No other official committees have been appointed or designated and, as of the date of this Application, no trustee or examiner has been appointed in this Chapter 11 Case.

5. Information regarding the Diocese's history, business operations, operational structure and the events leading up to the Chapter 11 Case can be found in the Affidavit of Rev. Peter J. Karalus Regarding Structure and Pre-Filing History of the Diocese of Buffalo and in Support of the Chapter 11 Petition and First Day Pleadings [Docket No. 8], and the Affidavit of Charles Mendolera Regarding the Diocese's Assets and Operations and in Support of the Chapter 11 Petition and First Day Pleadings [Docket No. 7], each of which was filed on the Petition Date and is incorporated herein by reference.

6. On June 4, 2020, this Court entered its Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for Professionals and Members of Official Committees [Docket No. 362] (the "Interim Compensation Order").

7. On December 22, 2020, the Diocese filed its Application for an Order Authorizing the Employment and Retention of Jones Day as Special Counsel to the Diocese [Docket No. 785] (the "Retention Application"), seeking authorization to employ and retain Jones Day as special counsel, nunc pro tunc, to December 1, 2020. On February 23, 2021, this Court entered its Decision & Order [Docket No. 905] granting the Retention Application.

8. On June 15, 2021, the Court entered an order approving Jones Day's first interim fee application and granted Jones Day an award of fees in the amount of $412,280.00 and expenses in the amount of $713.98, for a total award of $412,993.98 (the "First Fee Award"). As part of the First Fee Award, the Court required a ten percent (10%) holdback totaling $41,228.00, which remains unpaid. The remainder of the First Fee Award was satisfied from the Diocese's estate.

9. On December 10, 2021, the Court entered an order approving Jones Day's second interim fee application and granted Jones Day an award of fees in the amount of $384,394.00 and expenses in the amount of $2,154.37, for a total award of $386,548.37 (the "Second Fee Award"). As part of the Second Fee Award, the Court required a ten percent (10%) holdback totaling $38,439.40, which remains unpaid. The remainder of the Second Fee Award was satisfied from the Diocese's estate.

10. On December 19, 2022, the Court entered an order approving Jones Day's third interim fee application and granted Jones Day an award of fees in the amount of $495,869.00 and expenses in the amount of $8,251.23, for a total award of $504,120.23 (the "Third Fee Award").

11. On December 19, 2022, the Court entered an order approving Jones Day's fourth interim fee application and granted Jones Day an award of fees in the amount of $519,636.00 and expenses in the amount of $7,525.25, for a total award of $527,161.25 (the "Fourth Fee Award").

12. On June 22, 2023, the Court entered an order approving Jones Day's fifth interim fee application and granted Jones Day an award of fees in the amount of $348,240.00 and expenses in the amount of $3,797.73, for a total award of $352,037.73 (the "Fifth Fee Award").

13. Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, Jones Day filed the following monthly fee statements for work performed and expenses incurred during the Sixth Interim Compensation Period (the "Monthly Fee Statements") and served such statements on the Diocese and the other Notice Parties (as defined in the Interim Compensation Order):

Date Filed	Period Covered	Fees <sup>2</sup>	Expenses
3/22/2023	2/1/2023 – 2/28/2023	$17,182.00	$0.00
5/4/2023	3/1/2023 – 3/31/2023	$50,668.00	$366.14
5/24/2023	4/1/2023 – 4/30/2023	$13,576.00	$0.00
6/29/2023	5/1/2023 – 5/31/2023	$5,556.00	$0.00

Total:		$98,694.00	$366.14

14. Upon the expiration of the applicable objection period, the Interim Compensation Order authorized the Diocese to pay Jones Day 80% of its undisputed fees and 100% of the undisputed expenses set forth in each Monthly Fee Statement. As of the date of this Application, the deadlines established in the Interim Compensation Order for objecting to Jones Day's Monthly Fee Statements have passed and no formal objections to any of Jones Day's Monthly Fee Statements have been filed in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order.<sup>3</sup> Accordingly, the

<sup>2</sup> After the filing of its Monthly Fee Statements, Jones Day wrote off an additional $144.00, reducing the total amount of fees sought in this Application to $98,550.00.

Diocese has made payments to Jones Day on account of the Monthly Fee Statements for the period from February 1, 2023 through July 31, 2023 in the amount of $79,321.34.

15. During the Sixth Interim Compensation Period, Jones Day provided counsel to and represented the Diocese with respect to the implementation of a settlement agreement that resolved an action commenced November 23, 2020 against the Diocese by the Attorney General of the State of New York (the "Attorney General") in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, Index No. 452354/2020 (the "NYAG Action").<sup>4</sup>

DISCUSSION

16. All of the services for which compensation is requested by Jones Day were performed for, or on behalf of, the Diocese, and not on behalf of any creditor, examiner, trustee, or any other entity. In addition, Jones Day has not entered into any agreements to fix fees or to share compensation as prohibited by 18 U.S.C. § 155 and 11 U.S.C. § 504.

17. During the Sixth Interim Compensation Period, Jones Day billed to the Diocese a total of 106.10 hours rendering professional and paraprofessional services to the Diocese. The blended hourly rate for all services reflected in this Application was $930.20.

18. The following is a list of the professionals and paraprofessionals who performed services on behalf of the Diocese in this Chapter 11 Case during the Fifth Interim Compensation Period which shows each individual's hourly billing rate and the hours expended in the provision of services to the Diocese and the fees sought in connection therewith as part of this Application:

19. The professionals working on this matter have extensive experience litigating complex actions on behalf of their clients. Jones Day has a track record of successfully crafting and employing legal strategies and arguments to protect the interests of religious organizations. Additional information regarding Jones Day's qualifications can be found in the Supplemental Declaration of Attorney John D. Goetz in Support of Retention of Jones Day as Special Counsel to the Diocese [Docket No. 825].

20. In recognition of the Diocese's religious and charitable mission, and as disclosed in the Supplemental Declaration of Bishop Michael William Fisher in Support of the Retention of Jones Day as Special Counsel to the Diocese [Docket No. 874], the Diocese and Jones Day have agreed that Jones Day will discount its standard hourly rates by 20% for this matter. The aggregate amount of this discount to Jones Day's standard hourly rates during the Sixth Interim Compensation Period was $24,673.50.<sup>5</sup>

21. Jones Day has, in addition to the discounts described above, exercised its billing discretion and is not charging the Diocese for all time and services rendered on its behalf during the Sixth Interim Compensation Period. Jones Day has voluntarily written-off services valued in excess of $21,078, which services are not reflected on the time records attached hereto.

<sup>5</sup> The discount to Jones Day's standard hourly rates recognized during the Fifth Interim Compensation Period is in addition to the billing rate discount credited during the First $106,247.00, Second $98,598.50, Third $124,967.25, Fourth $134,996.00, and Fifth $116,095.00 Interim Compensation Periods. Through the Sixth Interim Compensation Period, the aggregate amount of the discount to Jones Day's standard hourly rates totals $484,077.25.

Additionally, in order to comply with the Court's cap of $300.00 per hour for services performed by paralegals, Jones Day also wrote off an additional $144.00 after filing the Monthly Fee Statements.

22. Jones Day, in the ordinary course of its business, maintains computerized time records. Attached to this Application as Exhibits A, B, C, D, E, and F are the detailed time records of the services performed on behalf of the Diocese, separated by task codes, respectively for the periods from: (a) February 1, 2023 through February 28, 2023; (b) March 1, 2023 through March 31, 2023; (c) April 1, 2023 through April 30, 2023; (d) May 1, 2023 through May 31, 2023; (e) June 1, 2023 through June 30, 2023; and (f) July 1, 2023 through July 31, 2023, as submitted with Jones Day's Monthly Fee Statements for the same time periods.

23. No formal objections to any of Jones Day's Monthly Fee Statements have been filed in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order.

24. Jones Day respectfully submits that its fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners at Jones Day and other firms in comparable representations for clients involved in bankruptcy proceedings and clients not involved in bankruptcy proceedings.

25. There is no agreement or understanding among the Diocese, Jones Day or any other person or firm for sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in this Chapter 11 Case.

26. The services that Jones Day has rendered on behalf of the Diocese have been necessary and beneficial to the Diocese's estate. These services have not been duplicative of services provided by any of the Diocese's other retained professionals in this chapter 11 case.

27. The Court may award a professional retained by the bankruptcy estate under section 327(a) "reasonable compensation for actual necessary services" rendered by the professional, plus "reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses" under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1).

28. Courts generally consider twelve factors in calculating whether the fees requested by professionals in bankruptcy case are reasonable and necessary:

- i. the time and labor required;
- ii. the novelty and difficulty of issues;
- iii. the skill necessary to perform the services properly;
- iv. the preclusion of other employment;
- v. the customary fee;
- vi. whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
- vii. time limitations imposed by the client or circumstances;
- viii. the amounts involved and the results obtained;
- ix. the experience, reputation and ability of the professional;
- x. the undesirability of the case;
- xi. the nature and length of the professional relationship to the client; and
- xii. awards in similar cases.

See Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974). Moreover, in awarding attorneys' fees, courts also consider whether the services rendered were reasonably likely to benefit the debtor's estate at the time they were performed. See In re Ames Dep't Stores, Inc., 76 F.3d 66, 71 (2d Cir. 1996), rev'd on other grounds, Lamie v. U.S. Trustee, 540 U.S. 526 (2004).

Thus, as one court explained, the Court should focus on what a reasonable lawyer would have done at the time and not invoke a hindsight analysis:

[I]t is important for a court to maintain "a sense of overall proportion," and not "become enmeshed in meticulous analysis of every detailed facet of the professional representation." It is easy to speculate in retrospect that the work could have been done in less time or with fewer attorneys or with an associate rather than a partner. On the other hand, it is also possible that [the debtor] would not have enjoyed the success it did had its counsel managed matters differently.

Boston & Maine Corp. v. Moore (In re Boston & Maine Corp.), 776 F.2d 2, 10 (1st Cir. 1985) (citations omitted); see also In re Angelika Films 57th, Inc., 227 B.R. 29, 42 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) (whether services are reasonable and necessary “does not rely on perfect hindsight, which the court must scrupulously avoid in making fee awards”); In re Ames Dep’t Stores, 76 F.3d at 71-72 (noting that courts should determine the necessity of services provided in an “objective manner, based upon what services a reasonable lawyer or legal firm would have performed in the same circumstances”); In re Keene Corp., 205 B.R. 690, 696 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1997), as corrected (Mar. 12, 1997) (noting that whether services were necessary is an objective test which requires a court to consider “what services a reasonable lawyer or legal firm would have performed in the same circumstances”).

29. Jones Day respectfully suggests that the fair and reasonable value of the services performed by it during the Sixth Interim Compensation Period is $98,550.00.

30. The Stipulated Final Order globally resolved the NYAG Action, allowing the Diocese to move forward in pursuing its religious and charitable objectives and to continue working towards confirming a chapter 11 plan. The Monthly Fee Statements submitted by Jones Day during the Chapter 11 Case reflect that negotiations generally involved ongoing discussions and meetings, correspondence, presentations to the Attorney General concerning various issues raised, and responses to a series of information requests from the Attorney General.

31. During the Sixth Interim Compensation Period specifically, Jones Day resolved a number of items raised by the Attorney General in connection with finalizing the Stipulated Final Order. Following the effective date of the Stipulated Final Order, Jones Day is assisting with the implementation of the settlement. The services rendered during the Sixth Interim Compensation Period include, among other things:

- a. Services related to the implementation of the Stipulated Final Order, including conferring with the independent auditor regarding preparation of a

- draft audit plan and advising the Diocese in connection with the topics to be included in the plan;
- b. Communications with the independent auditor, the Office of Attorney General (“OAG”), and the Diocese regarding the appropriate scope, terms, and timetable for the audit plan as required under the Stipulated Final Order;
  - c. Services related to obtaining the return of the Diocese’s documents provided to the OAG during settlement negotiations;
  - d. Services related to addressing requests from insurers for documents and records provided by the Diocese to the OAG during settlement negotiations;
  - e. Services related to researching legal updates relevant to the Diocese’s policies, and analyzing the impact of those updates on the Diocese’s compliance with the terms of the settlement agreement;
  - f. Monitoring the status of the independent auditor’s implementation of the finalized audit plan, and responding to questions arising from meetings between the Diocese and the independent auditor relating to implementation of the terms of the settlement agreement; and
  - g. Services related to the advising the Diocese regarding responses to FOIL requests for documents produced by the Diocese to the OAG during settlement negotiations.

32. All of the services for which compensation is requested by Jones Day were performed exclusively for, or on behalf of, the Diocese, and not on behalf of any creditor, examiner, trustee, or any other entity. Furthermore, all of the services for which compensation is requested by Jones Day were necessary to resolve the NYAG Action through the Stipulated Final Order and to begin implementing the terms of the settlement.

33. Based on the foregoing, Jones Day respectfully requests that this court issue an order approving payment to Jones Day of fees and expenses in the amount of $98,916.14 and directing the Diocese to pay to Jones Day the unpaid portion of such fees and expenses after taking into accounts any amounts paid to Jones Day prior to the hearing on this Application. The unpaid portions of Jones Day's fees and expenses for the Sixth Interim Compensation Period as of the date of this Application are set out in the table below.

DISBURSEMENTS

34. During the Sixth Interim Compensation Period, Jones Day has incurred reasonable and necessary out-of-pocket disbursements totaling $366.14 in connection with its representation of the Diocese. The requested disbursements are customarily charged to and paid by Jones Day's bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy clients.

NOTICE

35. Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, this Application will be served only upon the Notice Parties (as defined in the Interim Compensation Order). Notice of the hearing on this Application will be given to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Western District of New York, (ii) counsel for the Committee (iii) all required governmental agencies, (iv) all parties who have formally appeared in this Chapter 11 Case and requested notice in accordance with Rule 2002 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and (v) all of the Diocese's known creditors. ## LOCAL RULE 2016-1

36. Local Rule 2016-1 requires an applicant seeking interim compensation to explain why it is appropriate for the applicant to be paid immediately rather than waiting until the end of the Chapter 11 Case. Jones Day has dedicated significant time and resources to representing the Diocese in the NYAG Action and related settlement negotiations, resulting in the Stipulated Final Order. Other administrative expenses of the Diocese are being paid in full as they accrue. To delay Jones Day's receipt of payment for services rendered—especially considering that the terms of the Stipulated Final Order have globally resolved the NYAG Action—would impose an unnecessary hardship on Jones Day. Additionally, the Court previously recognized the utility of awarding monthly and interim compensation to professionals who represent the Diocese as well as others participating in the Chapter 11 Case. See Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for Professionals and Members of Official Committees [Docket No. 362]. Jones Day respectfully suggests that Local Rule 2016-1 is satisfied and that it is appropriate for the Court to award payment of the interim compensation sought herein at this time.

CONCLUSION

37. Based upon the foregoing, Jones Day respectfully requests that the Court approve interim compensation of Jones Day in the amount of $98,550.00 for services rendered to the Diocese during the Sixth Interim Compensation Period, plus reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $366.14, for a total award of $98,916.14.

WHEREFORE, Jones Day respectfully prays for the entry of an Order:

- a) Approving, awarding and allowing on an interim basis fees to Jones Day for services rendered to the Diocese during the Sixth Interim Compensation Period in the sum of $98,550.00 together with actual and necessary disbursements in the amount of $366.14;

- b) directing that Jones Day be paid, from the Diocese's estate, all such fees and expenses which have not previously been paid pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order; and
- c) granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
